

IE Indianapolis Children's Choir
PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Come Home to Song

Written and Illustrated by Corrine Sandefer
Edited by Lauren Southard

Suggestions for Learning

- This book can be enjoyed digitally on a screen, or by printing copies for one teacher's classroom use.
- Teachers of all disciplines can find their own creative ways of learning with this book! It was written and illustrated by a reading specialist, and edited by a music educator.
- The second half of the book contains coloring pages that can be used individually or as a whole for learning experiences. Extend learning by allowing children to enhance the story through their own imagination!
- "Does the book end differently when you write it?"
- "Who is in the window in your heart?"
- "What does your song look like?"
- Movement exploration, instrument exploration, melodic improvisation, and more.
- Journeys throughout landscapes, flying, jumping, animal sounds...lessons in kindness, acceptance, love, joy, and coming home to where your heart feels at peace.
- Please share with us your own ideas as you explore this beautiful book with your children! Email lsouthard@icchoir.org to share.

-Lauren Southard
Director of Outreach and Choir Programs,
Indianapolis Children's Choir

Let's sing the song in our hearts as we go along.

A bright new day for a bike ride with our favorite song.

Preview Copy

Preview Copy

Let's sing as we catch fireflies in the dark.

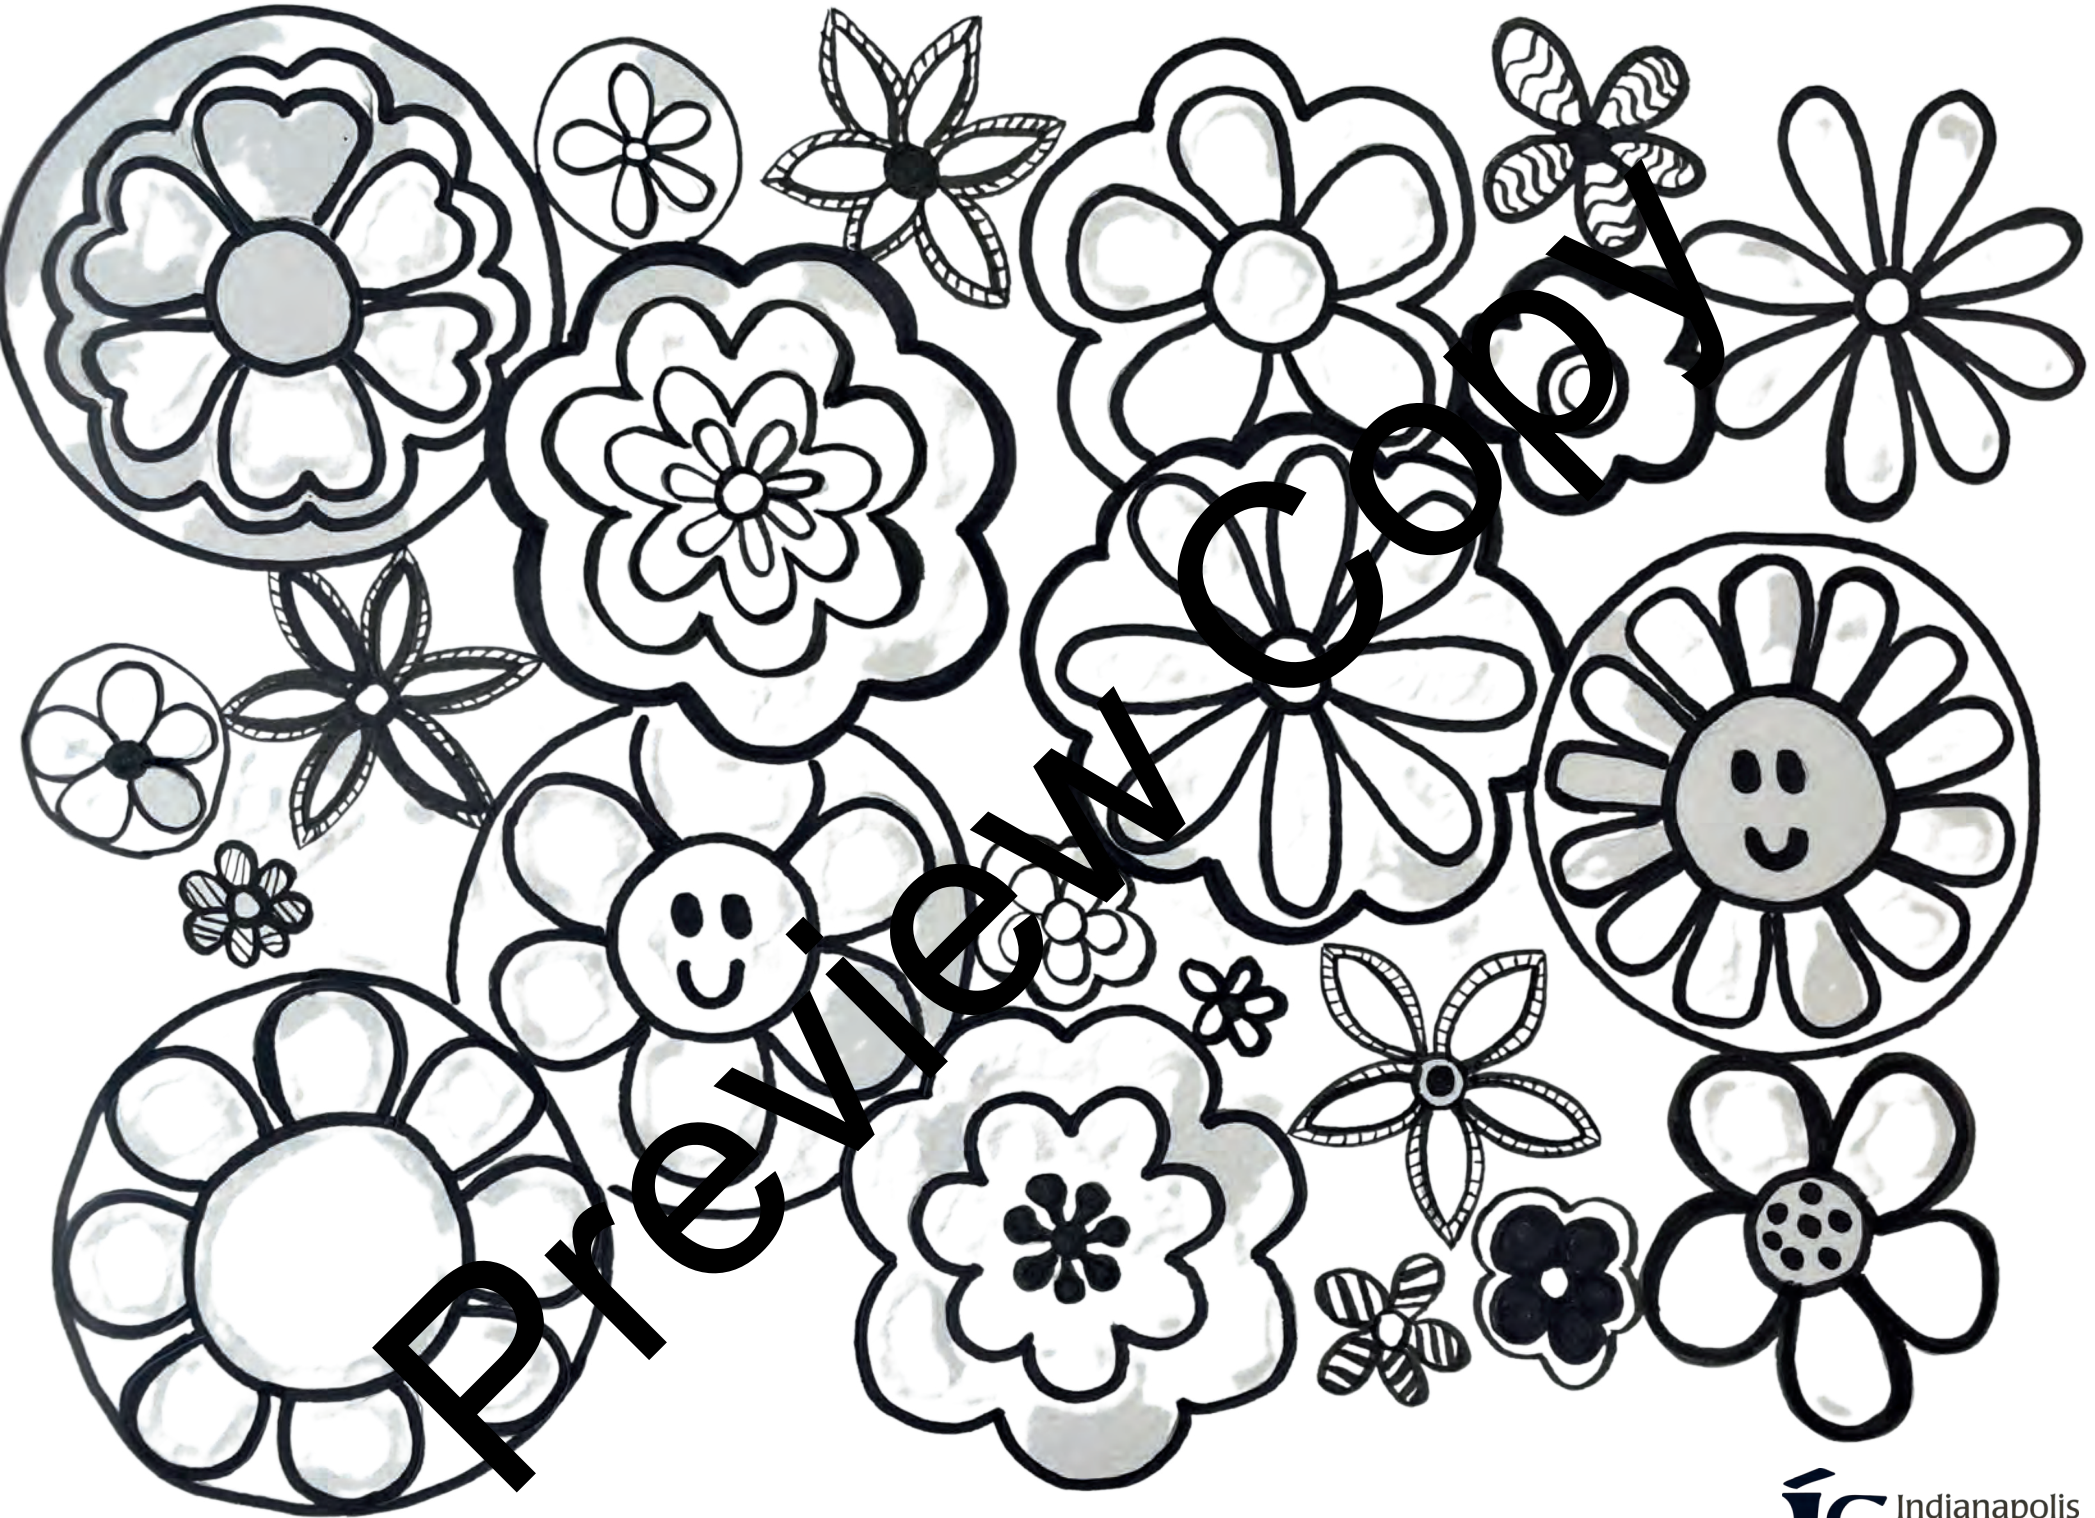

Preview Copy

Let's sing on our way to be together at choir.

Preview Copy

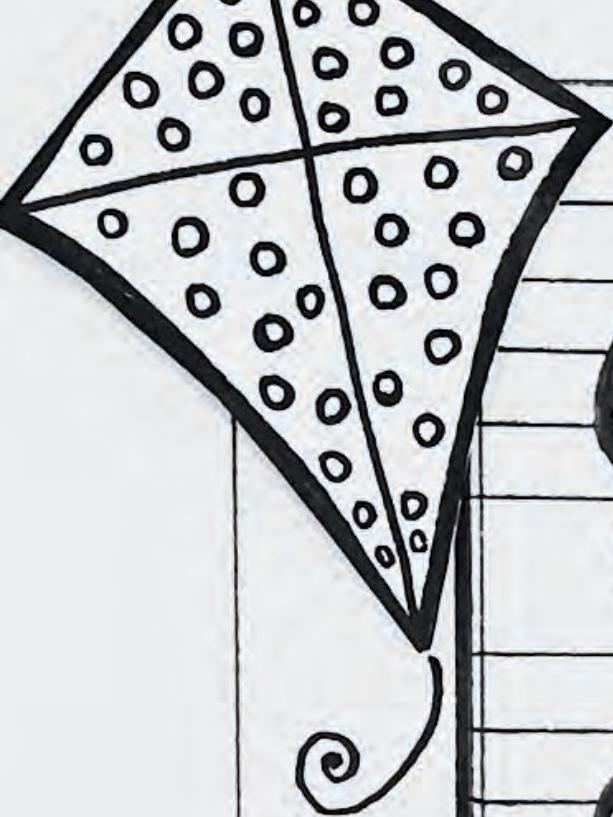

ÍE Indianapolis Children's Choir
PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Let's sing as we water the flowers in the garden.

Let's sing with the turtles in the ocean.

Preview Copy

Let's read our music and sing with our friends...

IC Indianapolis
Children's Choir